

ASIAN SHOOTING CONFEDERATION

ASC General Regulations

ASC General Regulations

1. PURPOSE

The General Regulations of the Asian Shooting Confederation (hereinafter referred to as ASC) govern all Asian Official Shooting Sports Championships and other major shooting competitions in Asia, in full conformity with Rules and Regulations of the International Shooting Sport Federation (hereinafter referred to as the ISSF).

These General Regulations underlie organizational, technical and administrative conditions, and the program of the Asian Shooting Championships.

ASC General Regulations

2 TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- 2.1 Only ASC Member Federations are entitled to participate in the Asian Shooting Championships. Other Member Federations of the ISSF may participate in the Asian Shooting Championships only with special permission by the ASC.
- 2.2 All Member Federations participating in the Asian Shooting Championships or other competitions acknowledged or supervised by the ASC must abide by these General Regulations.
- 2.3 Member Federations should always refer to the ASC as the only official link with the ISSF in all matters relating to any ASC supervised competition and ASC recognized shooting event, training courses and maintaining the Asian Records.

ASC General Regulations

3 ORGANIZING, HOSTING AND FREQUENCY OF ASC SUPERVISED COMPETITIONS

- 3.1 The ASC is responsible for conducting, directing and/or supervising:
- The Asian Shooting Championships.
 - Shooting events at the Asian Games.
 - Regional Shooting Competitions in Asia.
 - Any ASC organized or ASC supervised Championship or Competitions (Small Bore Rifle, Pistol, Air Gun, Running Target, Clay Target, etc.).
- 3.2 The ASC General Assembly chooses the countries to host the Asian Shooting Championships based upon proposals and recommendations by the ASC Executive Committee.
- 3.3 The ASC Executive Committee examines and approves programmes and detailed procedures of the Championships and the Competitions.
- 3.4 The Asian Shooting Championships are held at least once every four (4) years for all events. Olympic quotas may be split and distributed according to the frequency of the Asian Shooting Championships and subject to ISSF approval.
- 3.5 Member Federations willing to host the Asian Shooting Championships must submit an application to the ASC at least three (3) months before the ASC General Assembly meeting at which the organizing Federation will be chosen. The ASC informs accordingly all Member Federations at least two (2) months before the General Assembly meeting. The application must include:
- 3.5.1 An official statement from the respective National Olympic Committee or competent Government Agency indicating the support given to the organizers of the Championships.

ASC General Regulations

- 3.5.2 A statement that all the requirements of the ASC Constitution, the ASC General Regulations and of the ISSF Rules and Regulations will be strictly observed.
- 3.5.3 A statement that all the ASC Member Federations will be invited and that all the participants and officials would obtain the necessary Entry Visa if required, subject to approval of local authorities of such an entry visa.
- 3.5.4 A description of the existing or proposed Shooting Ranges and other essential facilities, strictly meeting all the relevant ISSF criteria. For shotgun events, information must include whether the Ranges are certified as approved for shooting with lead pellets only or for pellets of any alternative material.
- 3.5.5 Complete information regarding the proposed organization of the Championships, Range capacity, Range facilities, transportation to and from Ranges, and any other relevant information. Bus transport schedules must provide a possibility for shooters and technical staff to commute conveniently and often between the hotel accommodation and the Ranges.
- 3.5.6 A statement listing the events proposed for inclusion in the program.
- 3.5.7 A statement assuring that the maximum prices indicated for Boarding and Lodging will not be exceeded.

ASC General Regulations

- 3.6 If for any reason a chosen host country should become unable to organize the Championships or part(s) of the proposed events, the ASC Executive Committee may approve another country or countries as the organizer(s) of the whole Championships or part(s) thereof.
- 3.6.1 Withdrawal from hosting the Asian Shooting Championships is possible only with the approval of the ASC Executive Committee not later than fifteen (15) months before the Championships.
- 3.6.2 Unapproved or late withdrawal is subject to assessment of a fine or suspension from ASC Membership, or suspension from participating at ASC supervised competitions for a certain period decided by the ASC Executive Committee.
- 3.6.3 If no application for hosting the Asian Shooting Championships is received, the ASC Executive Committee may select any ASC Member Federation as organizer. If this is not possible, the ASC General Assembly or, in case of urgency, the ASC Executive Committee is authorized to cancel that particular round of the Championships.

ASC General Regulations

4. TIMING AND DURATION OF ASC SUPERVISED COMPETITIONS

- 4.1 For any separate events of the Asian Shooting Championships or other ASC Competitions, the ASC determines time and duration of such Championships or Competitions in cooperation with the hosting country.
 - 4.1.1 In the years before the Olympic Games, separate Asian Shooting Championships take place after the ISSF World Cups.
- 4.2 The duration of all mandatory events of the Asian Shooting Championships, including one (1) Official Training Day the Opening and the Closing ceremonies, must not exceed twelve (12) days. At the option of the Organizing Committee, Shooting Ranges may be opened for additional training days before the Official Training commences.
 - 4.2.1 Duration of the Asian Shooting Championships may be extended to a maximum of fourteen (14) days subject to the approval of the ASC.

ASC General Regulations

- 5.3 In all Olympic events, Qualification round and “Finals” are conducted in both Open and Junior events.
- 5.4 Any other ISSF recognized event may be included in the Asian Shooting Championships' official program upon approval by the ASC, as long as at least six (6) Member Federations certify that the event is regularly practiced in their countries at a national championship level.
- 5.5 If the number of individual entries in two (2) consecutive Asian Shooting Championships does not reach 25 in any of the Men's events, 15 in any of the Women's or 15 in any of the Junior events, the ASC may consider possible removal of the same event(s) from either the Mandatory or Optional list. The ASC General Assembly takes the final decision on the subject.

ASC General Regulations

6 JUNIORS REGULATIONS

- 6.1 Juniors are shooters who will be under the age of 21 on December 31 in the year of the competition. Their participation in the ASC events is regulated as follows:
 - 6.1.1 When Junior Men and Junior Women events are scheduled in the Asian Shooting Championships, the number of participants allowed per event is the same as that allowed for Men and Women. In this case, no mixed participation is allowed.
 - 6.1.2 In the Asian Shooting Championships, Juniors may participate in only one category during the same Championship: either the Juniors or the Open events, depending on their own choice.
 - 6.1.3 If no Junior category is foreseen in a particular event of a given Championship, Juniors may participate in that event as members of a national Men or Women team, even if they participate in the Junior category in other events of the same Championship.

ASC General Regulations

7 PARTICIPATION, TEAM SIZE AND NUMBER OF ENTRIES

- 7.1 Only ASC Members may participate in the ASC Competitions. All shooters who participate in ASC Competitions must be citizens of the country they represent for at least three (3) years before a given competition, and comply with the ISSF Eligibility Rules.
- 7.1.1 All shooters who participate in the ASC Competitions must be holders of the Official ISSF ID numbers, regularly obtained from the ISSF through the standard procedure described in the ISSF General Regulations (Annex "D"). All violators of this rule are subject to penalties and disqualification.
- 7.1.2 The waiting period following naturalization may be reduced or cancelled based on the agreement of the Member Federation concerned and with the final approval of both the ASC and the ISSF.
- 7.1.3 A competitor, who is holder of more than one Asian nationality, may choose which nationality to represent. However, after having represented one country, he may not represent a different country unless he fulfils the conditions relating to persons who have changed or acquired nationality, described in the following paragraphs.
- 7.1.4 A competitor, who has represented one country in any ASC recognized competition, and who has changed his nationality or acquired a new nationality, may not participate to represent his new country until three (3) full years have elapsed after such change or acquisition. This period may be reduced or cancelled based on the agreement of the Member Federation concerned, and with the approval of the ASC.

ASC General Regulations

- 7.1.5 If an associated State, Province or Overseas Department, Country or Colony is integrated within another country due to a change of borders; or if the International Olympic Committee recognizes a new National Olympic Committee, a competitor may continue to represent the country to which he belonged. However, he may also choose to represent his new country, or to enter any ASC recognized competition as a member of his new Member Federation, as soon as the Federation is recognized by the ASC. This particular choice may be made only once.
- 7.1.6 In all cases not expressly addressed herein, the ASC may take all decisions of a general or individual nature, and issue specific requirements relating to nationality, citizenship, domicile or residence of competitors, including the duration of waiting periods.
- 7.1.7 All disputes relating to the determination of the country which a competitor may represent, is to be resolved by the ASC.
- 7.2 All team leaders, coaches, officials and shooters participating in the Asian Shooting Championships and any other ASC supervised competition, must abide by all of the ASC and ISSF Rules and Regulations that apply to such competitions.
- 7.3 The maximum number of individual and team entries in the Asian Games is established by the Organizing Committee of the Asian Games round as approved with the Olympic Council of Asia.
- 7.4 Women cannot participate in Men events and vice-versa.

ASC General Regulations

8 ENTRY FEES

8.1 All entry fees are paid to the Organizing Committee upon arrival at the championships or other competitions.

8.2 Entry fees for Asian Shooting Championships are as follows:

8.2.1 For each Shooter in each event: USD 150
(of which USD 25 is payable to the ASC, and if the Championship has MQS status, USD 5 to the ISSF, as per ISSF General Regulations, within 30 days after the Championships)

8.2.2 For each Team: USD 75
(of which USD 25 is payable to the ASC within 30 days after the Championships)

8.2.3 For each trainer, coach, and other accompanying official: USD 50

8.3 Entry fees for other ASC organized Continental and Regional Championships are as follows:

8.3.1 For each Shooter in each event: USD 150
(of which USD 15 is payable to the ASC, and if the Championship has MQS status, USD 5 to the ISSF, as per ISSF General Regulations, within 30 days after the Championship)

(of which USD 25 is payable to the ASC within 30 days after the Championship)

8.3.3 For each trainer, coach, and other accompanying official: USD 50

ASC General Regulations

- 8.4 No other fee may be collected except in the following cases:
- 8.4.1 Any entry accepted after the final entry deadline will incur a penalty of USD 50 per Starter, to be paid to the Organizing Committee by the defaulter Federation. If this late entry fee has not been paid by the end of the competition, the Organizing Committee may forward the invoice to the ASC. In this case, a further penalty of USD 100 to offset costs will be charged. The ASC will forward the invoice for the late entry plus the USD 100 penalty to the Federation concerned. The total amount must be paid as soon as possible and not later than on 1st October of the running year. If the total amount is not paid in due time, the Federation concerned will be denied entry to the next ASC Championships.
- 8.4.2 For Clay Target events, charges for Training Targets may be collected, on condition that they are announced in the program beforehand.
