

ASIAN SHOOTING CONFEDERATION

GENERAL REGULATIONS

ASC General Regulations

9 SHOOTING RANGES AND FACILITIES

9.1 Minimum numbers of ranges and installations recommended for the Asian Shooting Championships and the Asian Games:

1	50m Targets	60
2	25m Targets	8 groups (40)
3	10m Air Rifle and Pistol	60
4	10m Running Target Ranges	4
5	Trap	4
6	Double Trap	4
7	Skeet	4

- 9.1.1 Trap and Skeet ranges may be combined. Trap ranges must be convertible to Double Trap unless separate Double Trap ranges are provided.
- 9.1.2 The minimum number of ranges stated in Clause 9.1 do not apply to Asian Airgun and Shotgun Championships for which smaller range facilities may be considered.
- 9.1.3 The area used by shooters on rifle and pistol ranges must be protected from the sun, wind and rain.
- 9.1.4 Air gun ranges for Asian Shooting Championships and Asian Games must be installed indoors.
- 9.1.5 Electronic target systems, of makes and models approved by the ISSF, preferably designed and produced in Asia, must be used for Pistol and Rifle Qualification and Finals of the Asian Games and for Finals, as a minimum, in the Asian Shooting Championships.
- 9.1.6 To enable the most adequate and smooth course of shooting events, some modifications may be considered when necessary.
- 9.2 Requirements for facilities shall always be in accordance with the relevant ISSF General Regulations.
- 9.3 The location of ranges and supporting facilities should be no further than 45 minutes maximum travelling time by road at peak traffic periods either from the Championship hotels (Asian Shooting Championships) or from the Athlete Village (Asian Games) or from other official satellite accommodation provided by the Competition Organisers.
- 9.4 Wherever possible new ranges and facilities should be designed and built to facilitate participation by disabled athletes shooting under International Paralympic Committee (IPC) and the Asian Paralympic Committee (APC)

ASC General Regulations

Rules and Regulations.

- 9.5 In addition, Member Federations are encouraged to modify existing ranges and facilities, where necessary, to facilitate access and participation by disabled shooting athletes.
- 9.6 Organisers are reminded that the competition programmes should allow sufficient time in the programme for unofficial training under ISSF Rules.
- 9.7 It is the responsibility of the Organising Committee to ensure that suitable ISSF specification shotgun ammunition is available for sale at reasonable prices at the ranges in sufficient quantities for both training and competition in all events. It is ISSF policy to make available a minimum of 3 (three) internationally known brands.

11 ADMINISTRATION, PROCEDURE AND SEQUENCE IN ORGANISING OTHER COMPETITIONS

- 11.1 The organising Member Federation sets up an Organising Committee and conducts the competitions where Asian records are recognised based upon these General Regulations and with reference to those of the ISSF.
- 11.2 The Organising Committee submits an official application to the ASC at least twelve (12) months before the competitions for examination and approval by the ASC.
 - 11.2.1 The application must include the request to appoint a Technical Delegate and a Jury of Appeal, and specify other juries required, and whether MQS status is sought.
 - 11.2.2 If the Organising Committee wishes to obtain official MQS status for the competitions, it has to comply with all relevant ISSF requirements as laid down in the ISSF General Regulations.
- 11.3 The Organising Committee transmits a complete preliminary programme to the ASC at least eight (8) months before the competitions for examination and approval by the ASC.
 - 11.3.1 The Organising Committee distributes the approved preliminary programme to all Member Federations, and publishes it in the official ASC calendar, at least six (6) months before the competitions.
 - 11.3.2 The official invitation and the preliminary entry form are distributed with the preliminary programme.
- 11.4 Each Member Federation willing to participate in the competitions must return the preliminary entry form to the Organising Committee at least three (3) months before the official arrival day of the competitions.
 - 11.4.1 The preliminary entry form must list all individual and team events in which the Federation will participate, the number of shooters in the different events, the total number of accompanying officials, along with the corresponding board and lodging requirements.
- 11.5 The Organising Committee transmits the final programme to the ASC at least two (2) months before the official arrival day of the competitions for examination and approval by the ASC.
 - 11.5.1 The Organising Committee distributes the approved final programme at least thirty (30) days before the official arrival day of the competitions to all those Member Federations that have returned preliminary entry forms.
 - 11.5.2 The final entry forms must be distributed with the final programme.

ASC General Regulations

- 11.6 Each Member Federation willing to participate in the competition must return the final entry form at least thirty (30) days before the official arrival day of the competition.
- 11.6.1 The final entry form must list:
- full name, date of birth and ISSF identity number of all shooters in all events
 - full name of all accompanying officials
 - complete arms and ammunition declarations for custom purposes
 - all necessary travelling details for arrival and departure
- 11.6.2 Member Federations deciding to decrease the number of shooters after the Organising Committee has already received the final forms, must pay all applicable fees according to the number of shooters and entries appearing on the final form.
- 11.7 The Organising Committee reserves the right to reject any entries received after the above-mentioned deadlines.
- 11.8 Delegations that have not submitted their final entry in due time are not allowed to participate in the competitions, even if they reach the competitions location anyway.
- 11.9 A late entry may be accepted by the Organising Committee only under the following restrictions:
- The final programme must not be changed
 - The late entry does not interfere negatively with any other organizational matters
- 11.10 The ASC supervises the competitions through a Technical Delegate, according to Art. 1.2.5 of the ASC Constitution.
- 11.10.1 The ASC appoints the Technical Delegate preferably (6) months before the competitions.
- 11.10.2 The Technical Delegate must not be a member of the host country's Federation(s).
- 11.10.3 The Technical Delegate is responsible to oversee the preparation and organization process, the ranges and other facilities, and to provide advice to the Organising Committee before and during the competitions.
- 11.10.4 The Technical Delegate must be invited to the site of the competitions, at the expense of the Organising Committee, at least a few days before the opening ceremony, as agreed with the Organising Committee.

ASC General Regulations

- 11.11 The Organising Committee provides free transport from the local airport or railway station to the hotel and from the hotel to the shooting ranges.
- 11.12 The participating Member Federations are responsible for covering travel and accommodation expenses (board and lodging) for all delegation members.
- 11.13 Board and lodging expenses charged by the Organising Committee must always be the most economical available on the local market at two or more different price levels.
- 11.14 Two (2) copies of the official result lists must be forwarded to the ASC no later than three (3) days from the end of the Championships. A list, showing the number of countries and competitors participating in each discipline, by event, must be included with the result lists.