

3 ORGANISING, HOSTING AND FREQUENCY OF ASC SUPERVISED COMPETITIONS

- 3.1 The ASC is responsible for conducting, directing or supervising:
- The Asian Shooting Championships.
 - Shooting events at the Asian Games.
 - Regional shooting competitions in Asia.
 - Any ASC organized or ASC supervised Championships or Competitions (eg. Asian Shotgun, Air Gun, Running Target... etc)
- 3.2 The ASC General Assembly chooses hosting countries of Asian Shooting Championships based upon proposals and recommendations by the ASC Executive Committee.
- 3.3 The ASC Executive Committee examines and approves programmes and detailed procedures of championships and other competitions.
- 3.4 The Asian Shooting Championships are held at least once every four (4) years for all events. Olympic quotas may be split and distributed according to the frequency of Asian Shooting Championships and subject to ISSF approval.
- 3.5 Member Federations willing to host the Asian Shooting Championships must submit an application to the ASC at least three (3) months before the ASC General Assembly meeting at which the organising Federation will be chosen. The ASC informs accordingly all Member Federations at least two (2) months before the General Assembly meeting. The application must include:
- 3.5.1 An official statement from the respective National Olympic Committee or competent government agency indicating the support given to the organization of the Championships.
- 3.5.2 A statement that all requirements of the ASC Constitution, of these General Regulations and of the ISSF rules will be strictly observed.
- 3.5.3 A statement that all ASC Member Federations will be invited and that all participants and officials would obtain the necessary entry visa if required.
- 3.5.4 A description of the existing or proposed shooting ranges and other necessary facilities, which must meet all relevant ISSF requirements. For shotgun events, information must include whether the ranges are certified as approved for shooting with lead pellets only or for pellets of any alternative material.
- 3.5.5 Complete information regarding the proposed organization of the Championships, range capacity, range facilities, transportation to and from ranges, and any other relevant information. Bus transport schedules must provide a possibility for shooters and technical staff to commute
