

ASC in 3 Championships will distribute Paris Quota during 2023 and 2024

2 December 2021

The ISSF allocated ten more quota places for the Asian Shooting Confederation (ASC) and now the ASC has a total of 48 quotas for Paris 2024 Olympic Games. The Executive Committee met on its 34th Meeting that took place via video conference on 30 November 2021 and discussed a preliminary plan for quota distribution for Paris 2024 Olympic Games.

The Executive Committee approved the plan to distribute the quota places in three different Asian Shooting Championships that will be organized, if possible, in east, west, and central Asia to ensure geographical diversity is met. The three competitions will be organized in 2023 and 2024 and the quota distribution will start on the 15th Asian Shooting Championship, Changwon, KOR from 22 October 2023 to 2 November 2023.

Finally, we urge our member federations to refer to our website and social media accounts on a regular basis to find the latest news about our beloved sport.

Website: www.asia-shooting.org

Instagram: @Asian_Shooting

Twitter: @Asian_Shooting