

ASC ASIAN RANKING SYSTEM

1 The ASC Asian Ranking

- 1.1 The ASC Asian Ranking System ranks athletes according to their achievements in the ASC continental competitions in each individual men's and women's event of the Olympic program.
- 1.2 The athletes are ranked according to the amounts of ranking points they earned at the ASC Asian competitions.
- 1.3 The ASC Ranking starts from zero on 1st of January of each calendar year.
- 1.4 The earning of the ranking points is based on athletes' competition rank (place).
- 1.5 The ASC Asian Ranking serves to determine the best athletes participated in the ASC Asian competitions of the season.

2 The Ranking competitions

- 2.1 The Ranking ASC competitions are:
 - Asian Games
 - Asian Championships
 - Asian Cups
 - Asian Grand Prix
- 2.2 The ranking points can be earned according to the following scales:

Place	Asian Games	Asian Championships	Asian Cups	Asian GP
1 place	4000	1500	1000	700
2 place	3000	1350	850	600
3 place	2000	1200	700	500
4 place	1550	1032	532	375
5 place	1390	964	488	343
6 place	1230	896	444	311
7 place	1070	828	400	279
8 place	910	760	356	247
9 place	705	660	293	197
10 place	673	629	268	167
11 place	641	598	243	137
12 place	609	567	218	107
13 place	577	536	193	77
14 place	545	505	168	47
15 place	513	474	143	17
16 place	481	443	118
17 place	449	412	93
18 place	417	381	68
19 place	385	350	43
20 place	353	319	18
21 place	321	288
22 place	289	257
23 place	257	226
24 place	225	195
25 place	193	164
26 place	161	133
27 place	129	102
28 place	97	71
29 place	65	40
30 place	33	9

- 2.3 The ranking points should correspond to competition places taken by athletes, even if the number of participants is less than the number of ranking places foreseen for this category of competition.

3 Distribution of ranking points

- 3.1 Any athlete which is ineligible to participate in finals (article 7.6.2 of the ASC General Regulations, athletes registered for Ranking Points Only (RPO)) achieves score sufficient to qualify for the finals a regular competitor, he/she shall be awarded ranking points for the first unqualified competition place. If the number of finalists is eight (8), that competitor shall receive points for the ninth (9th) place. If there are two or more RPO athletes in this event who could be qualified for finals according to their scores, they shall all receive ranking points of the ninth (9th) competition place.
- 3.2 If the qualification for finals should be decided by shoot-off, all the participants of this shoot-off who was not qualified for the finals should be awarded ranking points of the ninth (9th) competition place.