

DIEGO GASPERINI

Trap Coach / Instructor

INTRODUCTION

---

I'm Diego Gasperini.

I was born in Rome in 1975, and my career in shooting sports began as a *professional athlete* in the Italian Army. Competing at the highest levels, I developed a deep understanding of the sport, which later led me to specialize as a coach. Over time, I transitioned from an athlete to a *military shooting instructor*, gaining extensive experience in training and performance optimization.

My expertise grew through years of coaching, earning multiple *ISSF certifications, including the prestigious **ISSF "A" International Coach License. One of the most significant milestones in my career was serving as the **ISSF Shotgun Head Tutor from 2020 to 2024*, where I played a key role in educating and mentoring coaches worldwide, shaping the next generation of elite shooting instructors.

I have worked as the *national coach for Italy, Turkey, Croatia, Morocco, and Russia, leading athletes to **Olympic and World Cup victories*. My coaching philosophy is based on precision, discipline, and a relentless pursuit of excellence.

Through my work with the *FITAV Summer Camps* and the *Youth Shooting Academy*, I am committed to developing young talent and preparing them for international success.

If you're passionate about high-performance shooting, let's connect!
