1 PURPOSE

The General Regulations of the Asian Shooting Confederation (hereinafter referred to as ASC) govern all Asian official shooting sports championships and other major shooting competitions in Asia, in full conformity with rules of the International Shooting Sport Federation (hereinafter referred to as the ISSF).

Member Federations are encouraged to support major Paralympic shooting competitions and associated activities organised under the rules of the International Paralympic Committee (IPC) and the Asian Paralympic Committee (APC).

These General Regulations underpin organisational, technical and administrative conditions, and the programme of the Asian Shooting Championships.

2 TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- 2.1 Only ASC Member Federations are entitled to participate in the Asian Shooting Championships. Subject to ASC permission, other Member Federations of the ISSF may participate in the Asian Shooting Championships which do not include the allocation of Olympic quota places. The ASC Executive Committee may establish special rules for these participations.
- 2.2 All Member Federations participating in the Asian Shooting Championships or other competition acknowledged or supervised by the ASC must abide by these General Regulations.
- 2.3 Member Federations should always refer to the ASC as the only official link with the ISSF in all matters relating to any ASC supervised competition and ASC recognised shooting event, training courses and Asian records.

3 ORGANISING, HOSTING AND FREQUENCY OF ASIAN SHOOTING CHAMPIONSHIPS

- 3.1 The ASC is responsible for conducting, directing or supervising:
- The Asian Shooting Championships.
 - Shooting events at the Asian Games.
 - Regional shooting competitions in Asia.
 - Any ASC organized or ASC supervised Championships or Competitions (eg. Asian Shotgun, Rifle / Pistol, Running Target... etc)
- 3.2 The ASC Executive Committee chooses hosting countries of ASC various championships through postal ballot in case it is not possible to hold ASC Executive Committee meeting for any reason.
- 3.3 The ASC Executive Committee examines and approves programmes and detailed procedures of championships and other competitions.
- 3.4 The Asian Shooting Championships are held at least once every two (2) years for all events. Olympic quotas may be split and distributed in more than one championship according to the frequency of Asian Shooting Championships and subject to ISSF approval.
- 3.5 Member Federations willing to host the Asian Shooting Championships must submit an application to the ASC that includes:
- 3.5.1 An official statement from the respective National Olympic Committee or competent government agency indicating the support given to the organization of the Championships.
- 3.5.2 A statement that all requirements of the ASC Constitution, of these General Regulations and of the ISSF rules will be strictly observed.
- 3.5.3 A statement that all ASC Member Federations will be invited and that all participants and officials would obtain the necessary entry visa if required.
- 3.5.4 A description of the existing or proposed shooting ranges and other necessary facilities, which must meet all relevant ISSF requirements. For shotgun events, information must include whether the ranges are certified as approved for shooting with lead pellets only or for pellets of any alternative material.

ASC General Regulations

- 3.5.5 Complete information regarding the proposed organization of the Championships, range capacity, range facilities, transportation to and from ranges, and any other relevant information. Bus transport schedules must provide a possibility for shooters and technical staff to commute easily and often between hotel accommodations and the ranges.
- 3.5.6 A statement listing the events proposed for inclusion in the programme.
- 3.5.7 A statement assuring that the maximum prices indicated for board and lodging will not be exceeded.
- 3.6 If for any reason a chosen host country should become unable to organize the Championships or part(s) of the proposed events, the ASC Executive Committee may approve another country or countries as the organizer(s) of the whole Championships or part(s) thereof.
 - 3.6.1 Withdrawal from hosting the Asian Shooting Championships is possible only with the approval of the ASC Executive Committee as following:
 - The ASC Championships with Olympic Quotas not later than fifteen (15) months before the competition.
 - Other ASC Championships can be withdrawn not later than eight (8) months before the competition.
 - 3.6.2 Unapproved or late withdrawal is subject to assessment of a fine or suspension from ASC membership or suspension from participating at Asian Shooting Championships for a certain time decided by the ASC Executive Committee.
 - 3.6.3 If no application for hosting the Asian Shooting Championships is received, the ASC Executive Committee may select any ASC Member Federation as organizer. If this is not possible, the ASC Executive Committee is authorized to cancel that particular round of the Championships.

4 TIMING AND DURATION OF ASIAN SHOOTING CHAMPIONSHIPS

- 4.1 For any separate events of the Asian Shooting Championships or other ASC competitions, the ASC determines time and duration of such Championships or competitions in cooperation with the hosting country.
 - 4.1.1 Asian Shooting Championships shall preferably be organized after the ISSF Olympic Quota Distribution program in ISSF Championships and prior to the Olympic Games.
- 4.2 Duration of all mandatory events of the Asian Shooting Championships, including one (1) official training day and the opening and closing ceremonies, must not exceed fourteen (14) days. At the option of the Organising Committee, shooting ranges may be opened for additional training days before the official training starts.
 - 4.2.1 Duration of the Asian Shooting Championships may be extended to a maximum of sixteen (16) days upon the approval of the ASC.

5.4 The mandatory events of the respective Asian Shooting Championships program are determined by the ASC Executive Committee.

ASC General Regulations

- 5.5 Any other ISSF recognised event may be included in the Asian Shooting Championships' official programme upon approval by the ASC; as long as at least six (6) Member Federations certify that the event is regularly practiced in their countries at a national championship level.
- 5.6 If the number of individual entries in two (2) consecutive Asian Shooting Championships does not reach 20 in any of the men events, 12 in any of the women events or 10 in any of the juniors' events, the ASC may consider possible removal of the same event(s) from either the mandatory or optional list. The ASC Executive Committee takes the final decision on the subject.

6 JUNIORS' REGULATIONS

6.1 Athletes will remain as Juniors until the 31st December of the year in which they become 21 years of age. Any athlete born between 1st January and 31st December, will cease to be a Junior on the 31st December of that year. Juniors may participate in all ASC Championships as members of their national team. Their participation in ASC events is regulated as follows:

6.1.1 When junior men and women events are scheduled in the Asian Shooting Championships, the number of participants allowed per event is five (5) athletes and only three (3) of them may compete for medals.

6.1.2 In the Asian Shooting Championships, juniors may participate in more than one (1) age category during the same championship.

6.1.3 If more than one (1) age category are foreseen in a particular event of a given championship, athlete may participate only in one (1) category of this event.

6.1.4 The final ranking at the ASC Championships can be established in two age categories: under 18 years (Youth) and under 21 years (Juniors). Athletes will remain as Juniors and Youths until the 31st December of the year in which they become 21 and 18 years of age respectively.

6.2 YOUTH CATEGORY

6.2.1 This age category participates in the shooting sport under International Olympic Committee(IOC) and Olympic Council of Asia (OCA) rules.

6.2.2 The IOC in conjunction with the ISSF sets the criteria and conditions for the Youth Olympic Games held every 4 years.

6.2.3 The Olympic Council of Asia in conjunction with ASC sets the criteria and conditions for the Asian Youth Games held every 4 years.

6.2.4 Shooters under 18 years old are considered youth shooters. Athletes will remain as Youths until the 31st December of the year in which they become 18 years of age.

7 PARTICIPATION, TEAM SIZE AND NUMBER OF ENTRIES

- 7.1 Only ASC members may participate in the ASC competitions. All shooters who participate in ASC competitions must be citizens of the country they represent since at least three (3) years before a given competition, and comply with the ISSF Eligibility Rules.
- 7.1.1 All shooters who participate in ASC competitions must be holders of official ISSF ID numbers, regularly obtained from the ISSF through the standard procedure described in the ISSF General Regulations (Annex "D"). All violators of this rule are subject to penalties and disqualification.
- 7.1.2 The waiting period following naturalization may be reduced or cancelled based on the agreement of the Member Federation concerned and with final approval by both the ASC and the ISSF.
- 7.1.3 A competitor, who is holder of more than one Asian nationality, may choose which nationality to represent. However, after having represented one country, he may not represent a different country unless he fulfils the conditions relating to persons who have changed or acquired nationality, described in the following paragraphs.
- 7.1.4 A competitor, who has represented one country in any ASC recognised competition, and who has changed his nationality or acquired a new one, may not participate to represent his new country until three (3) full years have elapsed after such change or acquisition. This period may be reduced or cancelled based on the agreement of the Member Federations concerned, and with the approval of the ASC.
- 7.1.5 If an associated State, Province or overseas Department, Country or Colony is integrated within another country due to a change of borders; or if the International Olympic Committee recognises a new National Olympic Committee, a competitor may continue to represent the country to which he belonged. However, he may also choose to represent his new country, or to enter any ASC recognised competitions as a member of his new Member Federation, as soon as the Federation is recognised by the ASC. This particular choice may be made only once.
- 7.1.6 In all cases not expressly addressed herein, the ASC may take all decisions of a general or individual nature, and issue specific requirements relating to nationality, citizenship, domicile or residence of competitors, including the duration of waiting periods.
- 7.1.7 All dispute relating to the determination of the country which a competitor may represent, is to be resolved by the ASC.
- 7.2 All team leaders, coaches, officials and shooters participating in the Asian Shooting Championships and any other ASC supervised competition, must abide by all of the ASC and ISSF regulations that apply to those competitions.

ASC General Regulations

- 7.3 The maximum number of individual and team entries in the Asian Games is established by the Organising Committee of the Asian Games round as approved with the Olympic Council of Asia.
- 7.4 In Asian Games/regional games, Team medals will be decided on Qualification Results and only one Mixed Team per NOC can be registered to compete in the Final.
- 7.5 Women cannot participate in men events and vice-versa.
- 7.6 The number of participants in the ASC Championships:
 - 7.6.1 The number of participants from each nation is determined by the ASC Executive Committee.
 - 7.6.2 In the ASC Championships each nation can enter a maximum of five (5) athletes in individual events but only three (3) of them can be registered to compete in the Final for the medals other two (2) can only compete for the ranking points (RPO), Olympic MQS Status (MQS) or participate out-of-competition (OOC). Two (2) Mixed Teams in respective Mixed Team events but only one (1) of them can go (highest ranking team) to compete in the Final for the medals and one (1) Team in the respective Team events. However, in Asian Games or other Games, only one Mixed Team is allowed.
 - 7.6.3 In the ASC Championships Juniors each nation can enter a maximum of six (6) athletes in individual events. A maximum of three (3) athletes of one nation (the three top-ranked after Qualification) may proceed to the Final.
